Regulations

PREAMBLE:

- A. The 2010 Digicel Caribbean Cup is an official event of the Caribbean Football Union (hereafter referred to as CFU).
- B. The 2010 Digicel Caribbean Cup serves as a qualifying event for the CONCACAF Gold Cup Tournament.
- C. This competition is played in a Preliminary Phase and a Final Phase.
- D. Any rights that these regulations do not cede to a National Association shall belong to the CFU.

I. TITLE – THE DIGICEL CARIBBEAN CUP

- A. The Digicel Caribbean Cup shall take place every two years. National Associations affiliated to the CFU are invited to participate with their Senior National teams.

II. ENTRIES

- A. All National Senior Men's teams of CFU members have the right to participate in the Digicel Caribbean Cup.
- B. The competition will serve to qualify four (4) CFU members for places in the CONCACAF Gold Cup, these being the four (4) semi-finalists, and shall end, except if circumstances do not permit, at least six (6) months prior to the CONCACAF Tournament.

III. ORGANISATION OF THE COMPETITION

The competition shall be played in two (2) phases:

- The Preliminary Phase
 - i. Elimination Stage
 - ii. Group Stages
- The Final Phase
 - i. Group Stage
 - ii. Knock-out Stage

A. The Preliminary Phase:

This will be played through a knock-out stage and group stage;

i. Elimination Stage (if applicable):

- Participating teams of this stage shall be drawn and paired;
- Each pair shall participate in two (2) rounds of competition;
- The winner will be determined from an aggregate of results from both games and will qualify for the next stage of the preliminary round;

ii. Group Stages:

Group Stage I

- This stage will comprise four (4) groups of four (4) teams;
- All teams qualified from the Elimination Stage will participate in this round;
- All Stage I seeded teams along with group hosts will automatically qualify for this stage;
- All Group winners and the two best runners-up will qualify for the next phase;

Group Stage II

- This stage will comprise three (3) groups of four (4) teams;
- All teams qualified from Stage I will participate in this round;
- All Stage II seeded teams along with group hosts will automatically qualify for this stage;
- All Group winners and runners-up will qualify for the next phase;

B. The Final Phase

This will be played in two stages; a Group Stage and a Knock-out Stage;

iii. Group Stage

- This Stage will be comprised of two (2) Groups of four (4) teams;
- The National Senior team of the Host country of Digicel Caribbean Cup Finals will be given a direct berth to this stage;

- The defending champions of the Digicel Caribbean Cup will be given a direct berth to this stage;
 - Group winners and runners-up will qualify for the 1st Round of the Knock-out Stage of the Finals.
- iv. Knock-out Stage:
- This will be comprised of two (2) rounds of competition: The Semi-final Round and the Final Round.
 - There will be two semi-final matches; All semi-finalists will play in the Final Round;
 - Semi-final losers will compete in the third place play-off while Semi-final winners will play in Digicel Caribbean Cup Final.

IV. WITHDRAWALS

- A. Teams having entered the competition are obligated to play all their matches until they are eliminated. After entering the tournament, a team that fails to participate, shall be penalized as follows, except in unforeseen circumstances and cases of force majeure as determined by the CFU Executive Committee.
- B. If a withdrawal takes place:
1. After entering the Tournament but before the date of the draw for the first round, a fine of US $5,000.00 is applied;
 2. On or after the date of the draw but before the date of the first match of the Tournament, a fine of US $7,500.00 is applied;
 3. Anytime during the Qualifying Tournament, a fine of US $10,000.00 is applied.
 4. Anytime after the completion of the qualifying Tournament but before the CONCACAF Gold Cup, US $15,000.00;
 5. Depending on circumstances and the decision of the CFU Executive Committee, a team withdrawing at any stage of the competition may be ordered to reimburse the host association and the CFU any expenses they may have incurred for the withdrawing team as a result of its proposed involvement in the competition and also pay compensation for any damages or losses arising from its withdrawal;
 6. Penalties specified herein will not be applied in cases of force majeure, as verified by the CFU Executive Committee;
 7. The National Association of any penalized team shall be responsible for ensuring that specified sanctions are carried out and complied with.

V. THE CFU ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

- A. The Organizing Committee for the Digicel Caribbean Cup, appointed by the CFU Executive Committee, is responsible for the organization of the competition;
- B. The Organizing Committee may, if deemed necessary, establish a bureau and/or a sub-committee to deal with urgent matters. Any decision taken by the bureau or the sub-committee shall enter into force immediately but shall be subject to confirmation by the Executive Committee at its next meeting;
- C. The Organizing Committee shall, amongst other matters be responsible for:
 1. All Phases:
 - a. Imposing fines specifically provided for by these regulations.
 - b. Dealing with protests;
 - c. Appointing match commissioners and/or security officers;
 - d. Deciding which laboratories, if any, will carry out doping analyses;
 - e. Dealing with breaches of the doping regulations;
 - f. Settling cases of force majeure;
 - g. Deciding which matches, if any, will be subject to doping tests;
 2. Technical Matters:
 - a. Forming Groups;
 - b. Supervising general preparations, deciding the match system, the draws and forming groups;
 - c. After consultation with the Host Association, fixing the dates and venues for the matches;
 - d. Determining kick-off times;
 - e. Choosing the official football and the stipulated technical material;
- D. The Organizing Committee's decision shall be final.

VI. DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

- A. In cases of infringement of these Regulations, unsporting behaviour on the part of referees, participating Teams, their players, officers and/or directors, or the occurrence of any kind of unsavoury incident, the CFU Disciplinary Committee shall be empowered to:
1. Admonish, sanction, fine, suspend or disqualify players, referees, teams, team coaches or officials;
 2. Take action in accordance with FIFA's Disciplinary Measures against any person or National Association (s) which may violate the Tournament Regulations, the Laws of the Game or the rules of Fair Play;
 3. Sanction players, team officials, coaches, physicians and other Team or National selection officers who are deemed guilty of provocation;
 4. Prohibit violators from participating in a specific number of CFU organized tournaments in which they might otherwise have participated;
- B. Breach of regulations or unsporting behaviour on the part of participating National Associations or their officials, shall be reported by the Disciplinary Committee to the CFU Executive Committee for application of such sanctions as it may deem appropriate;
- C. When taking a decision, the Disciplinary Committee shall refer to the reports made by the referee, assistant referees and fourth official, match commissioner, referees' inspector, general coordinator, technical delegate, security officer and other CFU officials present. It may also refer to television and/or video recordings. They may be used as evidence but only as far as disciplinary aspects of the case being dealt with are concerned and shall not affect a referee's decision regarding facts connected with play;
- D. The Disciplinary Committee may convene a personal hearing and will decide the procedure to be followed;
- E. The following decisions of the Disciplinary Committee shall not be subject to appeal:
1. Cautions and censures imposed on players, referees, assistant referees, fourth officials, delegation officials, other persons or national associations;
 2. Suspensions from up to two matches or two months imposed on players, referees, assistant referees, fourth officials, delegation officials or other persons;
 3. Fines imposed on players, delegations, referees, assistance referees, fourth officials, delegation officials or other persons (not exceeding US $ 3,500.00) or on National Associations (not exceeding US $ 10,000.00);
 4. Appeals against any other decisions taken by the Disciplinary Committee may be lodged with the Appeal Committee;
- F. The relevant Association under the provisions of its own Regulations shall punish any Team officers, technicians or other personnel for Cup and Competitions for any other offenses that may be committed during the course of the Digicel Caribbean Cup. For this purpose, the Disciplinary Committee shall refer to the appropriate Association the referee's report of the match in question. The Association will, in turn, report back to the Disciplinary Committee on the resolution of the matter and any disciplinary action taken;

- G. Except in cases of force majeure, if a team does not report for a match or refuses to continue to play or leaves the stadium before the end of the match, the team shall be considered to have forfeited the match. The match and three points shall be awarded to its opponent along with a score of 3:0 or more (or more if the opposing team has already achieved a greater margin of victory) and shall eliminate the guilty team from the competition;
- H. If, through the fault of any National Association, a match cannot take place or be played in its entirety, the Organizing Committee shall declare the match to be forfeited, awarding victory and the resultant three (3) points to the opposing team, as well as a score of 3:0 (or more if the opposing team has already achieved a greater margin of victory) and shall eliminate the guilty team from the competition;
- I. If the suspension of a match was the result of negligence on the part of the stadium authorities, the stadium in which an interrupted match is held may be suspended for the remaining games of the Digicel Caribbean Cup;
- J. If a game is suspended due to a team (s) refusing to complete the match, it shall be ineligible to participate in the next Digicel Caribbean Cup;
- K. Any other infringement of these Regulations, whether by players, referees, officials, coaches or officers that are punishable by economic sanctions shall be reported to the General Secretariat of the CFU for consideration by the Executive Committee;
- L. The appropriate Association thereof must pay all economic penalties assessed no later than sixty (60) days after notification. Unless otherwise specified, the total amount of all fines will accrue to the CFU;

VII. APPEALS COMMITTEE

- A. The Appeals Committee shall hear all appeals lodged against the Disciplinary Committee that are not final according to these regulations;
- B. The procedure to be applied by the Appeals Committee is defined in the FIFA Disciplinary Code;
- C. The Appeals Committee shall reach its decisions on the basis of the documents and other means of evidence contained in the Disciplinary Committee's file. However, the Appeal Committee may, if necessary, resort to further evidence (including television and video recordings etc.) which it considers relevant;
- D. Decisions pronounced by the Appeal Committee are final.

VIII. PROTESTS

Protests or objections of any kind connected with matches organized in any phase of the Digicel Caribbean Cup are subject to the following provisions:

- A. Protests shall be submitted, except if a different procedure is stipulated by these regulations, in writing to the Match Commissioner or the CFU representative at the match, no later than two (2) hours after the games and followed up by a written report, including the original protest, to be sent to the CFU's General Secretariat no later than 24 hours after the completion of the match in question;
- B. Protests against the eligibility of players taking part in any matches shall be submitted in writing to the referee or the Match Commissioner not later than two (2) hours after the match in question and confirmed by letter to be sent to the CFU's General Secretariat within twenty-four (24) hours of the match in question;
- C. Protests against any incidents that occur during a match shall be directed to the referee by the team captain immediately after the disputed incident and before play has been resumed. The protest shall be confirmed in writing to the Match Commissioner or the CFU representative at the match by the head of the team delegation no later than two (2) hours after the match in question;
- D. Protests as to the state of the pitch, markings, the accessory equipment (goals etc) or the ball will be made to the Referee before the start of the match. If, in the opinion of the captain, the turf becomes unplayable during the match, the Captain of the team concerned shall immediately inform the Referee in the presence of the Captain of the opposing team;
- E. No protests may be made against the Referee's decisions on points of fact connected with play, such decisions being final;

- F. If a frivolous or irresponsible protest is lodged, the Organizing Committee responsible may impose a fine of USD $5,000.00 or the reimbursement of expenses caused by this protest, on the guilty team(s);
- G. The expenses which arise from a protest shall be charged to the CFU or the protesting party providing they have lost;
- H. National Associations may not bring disputes with CFU before a Court of Justice. They however, shall undertake to submit any such disputes to the jurisdiction of the competent authority of the CFU;
- I. Once the winning teams of the Digicel Caribbean Cup have been proclaimed, any protest or complaint about the sports procedure followed during the competition shall be disregarded;

IX. MATCHES PLAYED ACCORDING TO THE LAWS OF THE GAME

- A. All matches will be played under the Laws of the Game as approved by the International Football Association Board and published by FIFA;
- B. In the case of any discrepancy in the interpretation of the Laws of the Game, the English text shall be authoritative;
- C. A maximum of fourteen (14) persons shall be allowed on the team bench, seven (7) officials and seven (7) substitutes. The names of these persons and their functions must be indicated on the relevant form provided by the "Fourth Official" prior to the start of the match;

X. DURATION, EXTRA TIME, PENALTY KICKS

- A. Each match shall last ninety (90) minutes, comprising two periods of forty-five (45) minutes with an interval of fifteen (15) minutes in between;
- B. Clocks in the stadium showing the amount of time played may run during the match provided that they are stopped at the end of normal playing time in each half. i.e., after forty –five (45) and ninety (90) minutes respectively. This stipulation shall also apply in the event of extra time being played (i.e. fifteen (15) minutes of each half);
- C. At the end of the two periods of normal playing time (45 and 90 minutes), the referee shall indicate to the fourth official, orally or by gesturing with his hands, the number of minutes that he has decided to allow for time lost. This applies also to the two periods of 15 minutes of extra time. Each allowance shall be announced to the public by the fourth official using the substitution cards or electronic display boards and by the public address announcer.
- D. Extra time shall be allowed only in the case of a match where there must be a clear winner and will consist of 30 minutes of time played after normal and injury time has been completed. These 30 minutes shall be split into two 15 minute halves with an interval of 5 minutes in between.
- E. Should no winner be determined at the end of extra time, kicks from the penalty mark, executed as explained in Law 14 of the FIFA laws of the game, shall be the determining factor.

XI. FIELD OF PLAY, STADIA, BALLS

- A. The fields of play and all accessory equipment shall comply with the provisions stipulated in the Laws of the Game. The fields and the facilities shall be in optimum condition and are subject to approval by the Organizing Committee.
- B. As a general rule, matches may be played in stadia which are all-seated.
- C. The matches of the Digicel Caribbean Cup may be played on natural turf or artificial surfaces. Where artificial surfaces are used, the surface must meet the requirements of the FIFA Quality Concept for artificial turf or the International Artificial Turf Standards.
- D. The Organizing Committee shall guarantee that the fields of play chosen for the Tournament comply with the Laws of the Game. They shall be subject to the approval of the Organizing Committee.
- E. The footballs for all Phases shall be supplied by the Host National Association and shall also bear the designation "FIFA approved".

- C. The CFU's Referees' Committee decisions shall be final and not subject to appeal.
- D. After each match the referee shall complete an official CFU report form. He shall hand it over immediately after the match to the Match Commissioner or the General Coordinator at the venue which they must send to the CFU's General Secretariat within 4 hours of the completion of the match.

XVIII. COMPETITION SYSTEM

The Tournament will be played in two phases.

A. Preliminary Phase

1. This Phase shall consist of no more than thirty (30) teams;
2. Teams participating in this phase shall be given notice at least twenty (20) days in advance of the drawn schedule of the Tournament which shall be determined by the CFU Executive Committee;
3. The Preliminary phase shall be played in two Stages:
 - a. Elimination Stage - A maximum of twenty (20) teams;
 - b. Group Stage – four (4) groups of four (4) teams;
4. The Elimination Stage:
 - a. Non-seeded teams shall be drawn and paired;
 - b. Each pair shall participate in two (2) rounds of competition where each team shall have one (1) home match and one (1) away match;
 - c. The winner will be determined from an aggregate of results from both games and will qualify for the next stage of the preliminary round;
 - d. Teams will be awarded three points for a win, one point for a draw and zero points for a loss;
 - o If after both games have been played, teams are tied on points then the winner will be determined as follows:
 - o Greater goal difference in matches between the tied teams - When tabulating the goal difference between teams, each goal scored at home will count as one point while each goal scored away will count as two (2) points;
 - o If, after full time in the 2nd match, teams are still tied on aggregate, extra time shall be played followed by, if necessary, kicks from the penalty mark to determine the winner (in accordance with Article X)
5. In the group stage, each team shall play a minimum of one match against each of the other teams in the same group. Three points shall be awarded for a win, one point for a draw and no points for a loss;
 - a. Twelve teams shall participate in this Stage. Group Stage I qualifiers will join the second, third and fourth place teams of the previous tournament in forming three groups of four (4) teams;
 - b. All Group winners and runners-up of Groups Stage II will qualify for the Final Phase.
 - c. If two or more teams are equal on points (including ties among second or third place teams,) the manner in which teams will advance to the next round will be resolved as follows and in the order indicated:

- Most points in all Group Matches;
 - Greater number of points in matches between the tied teams;
 - Greater goal difference in matches between the tied teams (if more than 2 teams finish equal on points);
 - Greater number of goals scored in matches among the tied teams (if more than 2 teams finish equal on points);
 - Greater number of goals scored in all group matches;
 - Least number of goals allowed between the teams in question;
 - Drawing of lots.
6. If two or more runner-up teams in different groups are equal on points, the manner in which teams will advance to the next round will be resolved as follows in the order indicated:
- a. Most points in all Group Matches;
 - b. Greater number of goals scored between the teams in question;
 - c. Greater goal difference between the teams in question;
 - d. Least number of goals allowed between the teams in question;
 - e. FIFA/Coca Cola National Team Rankings as of August 1st, 2010;

Should any teams still be tied, then the above will be re-applied to the remaining teams. If a winner still cannot be determined then:

- a. Both teams will enter into a play-off match to be held on October 30th, 2010 in Trinidad the winner of which will join Group H in the Second Round;
- b. If, after full time, this match is a draw, extra time shall be played followed, if necessary, by kicks from the penalty mark to determine the winner (cf. Art X);
- c. Except in cases of force majeure, as determined by the CFU Executive Committee, if, through the fault of any National Association, this match cannot take place or be played in its entirety, the Organizing Committee shall declare the match to be forfeited (awarding victory to the opposing team);

B. Final Phase

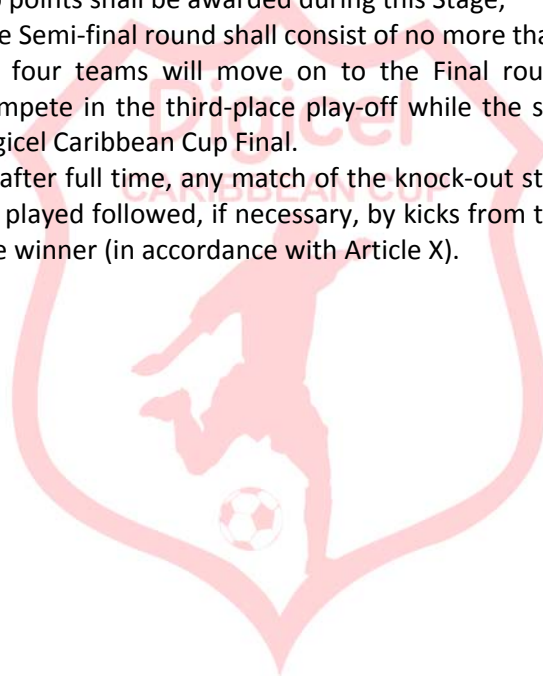

The Final Phase shall consist of a Group Stage and a Knock-out Stage;

1. The Group Stage

- a. This stage shall consist of no more two (2) groups of four (4) teams. Group winners and runners-up will qualify for the Final Stage.
- b. Each team shall play a minimum of one match against each of the other teams in the same group. Three points shall be awarded for a win, one point for a draw and no points for a loss.

2. The Knock-out Stage

- a. Shall consist of two rounds; the Semi-final round and the Final round;
- b. No points shall be awarded during this Stage;
- c. The Semi-final round shall consist of no more than four (4) teams;
- d. All four teams will move on to the Final round; the semi-final losers will compete in the third-place play-off while the semi-final winner will play the Digicel Caribbean Cup Final.
- e. If, after full time, any match of the knock-out stage is a draw, extra time shall be played followed, if necessary, by kicks from the penalty mark to determine the winner (in accordance with Article X).

XIX. MEDIA ADVERTISING AND MERCHANDISING
